

(Who, Whose, What, Which) Questions

Printable

We use Who to ask about people	Who are you?
We use Whose to ask about possession.	Whose umbrella is that?
We use What and Which to ask about things.
We usually use What when there are many possible answers:	What's her name?
We normally use Which when there are only a few possible answers:	Which pencil is yours, the orange one or the yellow one?
